

Tuesday, 10 November 2020

Event program

Emotions and cancer

Psychologist Samantha Clutton will talk about common psychosocial challenges experienced by younger women with cancer and offer some helpful coping strategies. 11:05am – 11:35am

Sexuality and intimacy

Professor Jane Ussher from Western Sydney University will talk about sexuality and intimacy and navigating sensitive situations that younger women may experience during and after cancer treatment. 11:35am – 12:05pm

Support is available

Cancer Council Queensland provides a range of free services and programs that may assist you and your family manage emotional and practical impacts of cancer. 12:05pm – 12:15pm

When you're a mum with cancer

Gayle Richardson and Alisha Wallace from Mummy's Wish will share experience and practical tips for mums with young children, who are juggling cancer treatment and parenting. 12:15pm – 12:45pm

Attend the whole event or jump online for the topics you're most interested in*. Login details and instructions on how to join will be provided prior to the event.

*Please note, the above session times are approximate, and session order may change at short notice.

For further information, please call 13 11 20 or email cancersupportandinformation@cancerqld.org.au

We look forward to seeing you!

